

INSTITUTIONAL PERFORMANCE OUTCOMES

94% of graduates agree that the courses in their program / major

- *helped them develop their Christian Worldview,
- *contributed to their knowledge and understanding of other cultures,
- *helped them develop their Bible knowledge,
- *helped them become more committed to the cause of Christ, and
- *helped them to mature spiritually.

94% of graduates agree that they are satisfied with the quality of instruction in their major.

At least 82% of graduates agree that the courses in their major helped develop their writing skills, reading skills, and speaking skills.¹

¹Based on the 2021 senior exit survey (21 graduates, 17 respondents).