

School of Education Complaints or Grievances

Level One

- All issues must first be addressed with the individuals directly involved in the situation.

Level Two

- If an issue cannot be resolved at level one, the involved parties may seek out assistance from an individual of authority within the School of Education.

Level Three

- If an issue cannot be resolved at level two, the involved parties may seek out the assistance of the Academic Dean.

Level Four

- If an issue cannot be resolved at level three, the involved parties may seek out the assistance of the Dean of Students.

Any student of the Educator Preparation Program of Arlington Baptist University can submit a form complaint with the Texas Education Agency.
